

Software

Metcomp has successfully completed projects of all sizes: from macro-driven excel projects to large three-tiered systems.

Projects

Open source products have benefited Metcomp and its customers greatly. So we have decided to give back to the open source community. Metcomp is continually working on ways to improve productivity, you'll can look at a list of our projects at Metopen .

Support

We offer support options to fit your needs including support for our open source projects in our forums .
